

Addressing Child Poverty in Scotland- Financial Inclusion Pathways in Early Years, Children & Family Services

Wednesday 22nd February 2017 (10:00am - 15:30pm)
221 High Street Glasgow, Glasgow City Council

09:30	Registration with refreshments
10:15	Welcome and Introductions Chair: Kerry McKenzie, NHS Health Scotland
10:30	What is the child poverty challenge in Scotland? Hanna McCulloch, CPAG Scotland
10:50	Children and Young People – research, evaluation frameworks and good practice referrals Allison Barnes, Money Advice Service and Sandra Sankey, Improvement Service
11:15	Coffee Break – refreshments 'Child poverty, health and wellbeing' eLearning module demonstration
11:30	Project Showcase
	Q&A
12:30	Lunch and networking 'Child poverty, health and wellbeing' eLearning module demonstration
13:15	Table discussions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What's happening in your area? ○ What needs to happen? ○ How can this be achieved/what's required to achieve this? ○ Local and national actions?
14:40	Coffee Break – refreshments
14:55	Feedback from table discussions Actions to take forward
15.25	Closing remarks from the Chair
15:30	Event closes

*please note timings and the titles of the presentations may change.

